

Kentucky Crafted

Monday, 16 April 2007

Ok, I have now typed this 3 times and Joomla is getting on my nerves. Anyway, tomorrow I have to go to Frankfort to drop off samples of my art for my Kentucky Crafted application. Hope all goes well and I am accepted. On the plus side, at least i will get the chance to see a few old friends tomorrow when I go to Frankfort. I do not miss State Government one bit!
